IN THE WORDS OF PRIME MINISTER WINSTON CHURCHILL, "SELDOM HAVE SO FEW DONE SO MUCH FOR SO MANY."

ALMA MATER

By Atlantic's rolling billows
'Neath the golden smile
Of the Old Dominion sunshine
Hearts true all the while

We have built an institution
With hope and labor great
A monument to education
In our dear old State.

Oceana, Oceana, we'll to you be true
You're the pride of old Virginia
Hail, oh Hail to you—

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1945

In September of the year 1941, Oceana High School shall we say welcomed (?) into its portals the Class of 1944-45. Ah, yes, we were a scrawny, miserable-looking bunch, that Class of '45, and don't think we didn't know it. Why, we had that fact established on our pitiful little hides the moment we stepped inside, what with lipsticked faces and razor-strapped — bodies!

Let's see — oh yes, I remember. That was the year that romance flourished in all its golden splendor. Ann Kitchin was wild about Chuck Hurt— in fact, the feeling was mutual. And June MacTernan swooned over Mallory Boush every time he entered the room. Oh, and that cute little boy from Pearl Harbor who set more than one feminine heart a-flutter. Billy Johnson, Chuck Hurt, and Jane Robinson were our class officers. We smiled through the many hardships always suffered by "Rats," looking hopefully on to our Senior year, when we would enjoy special privileges!

Then one fine day we were promoted to the Sophomore Class; at least now we could look with disdain upon one class—the "Rats." We still weren't in the mood for studying — so we just didn't bother. If you want proof, go take a squint at our permanent records. We elected as our class officers Billy Whitehurst, Tom Spahr, and Sally Baldwin. Have you ever heard of Civil War II? It was fought in the year 1942 between a certain History teacher and our entire class. All in fun, though, and I've got the scars to prove it! And of course, romance was still in bloom. No one, I believe had a steady at that time, but brother, did we have fun!

Janice Shaffer and Betsy Kyle made the basketball squad that year, which is rather unusual for Sophomores. Glenn Yates and Lee Gregory played on the boys' team, while Glenn also displayed his musical talent by playing trombone in the school orchestra. Jimmy Paxton and Lee Gregory played on the football team, destined to become co-captains in their Senior year.

Our Junior year found us even more slap-happy than before, if possible. We did have loads of fun that year, with many outstanding events such as the Junior Prom and the Junior-Senior Banquet, the latter being held very successfully at the Spotswood Arms Hotel. And we welcomed into our midst Ginny Carpenter, Jacque Raetz, Lucy Deam, Gloria Garavaglia, Mary Jane Tayes (commonly referred to as "The Brain") and many others. But quite a few of the originals, including Margaret Philhower, June MacTernan, and others, left for "foreign soil." And of course we hated to see them go. Our class officers were George Powell, Mary Jane Tayes, Jane Robinson, and Jacque Raetz.

We had many outstanding students in our class, in sports as well as other important events. Jane Robinson, Marvel Breitling and Beverly Lackey made the girls' team, while Lee Gregory and Glenn Yates played basketball on the boys' team. Sparkling cheerleaders that year were Glenn Yates, Ann Kitchin, Shirley Dunn, and Jane Robinson. Janice Shaffer joined them the following year.

Then came the grand and glorious Senior year! The year we had strived and sweated for! I would mention Senior Privileges, but that is still a touchy subject with all concerned. We finally got them back after many trials and tribulations.

Our Senior Class officers were Jimmy Paxton, President, who was also Student Council President, and President of Student Body; Ralph Mooney, Vice-President; Jacque Raetz, Secretary; and Gloria Garavaglia, Treasurer. The manpower shortage was acute, since the boys seemed to prefer the armed forces to the Senior girls. The odds proved drastic! So we all began swooning over two freshmen, namely Bodie Baum and Roddy Watson. Tell me, isn't there a law against cradle-robbing? Some of our old classmates found their way back to us after many wanderings, which goes to prove that "there's no place like home." And they like it so well they've decided to remain for a while.

Exciting events took place during our Senior year! Jane Robinson and Lee Gregory took leading roles in the very successful Senior play, "June Mad." They were supported by a grand cast. Jackie Stone was chosen chairman of the S. C. A., and she and Jimmy Paxton represented our class at the all-day meeting held in Suffolk. Jackie was also the editor of the annual, and held many other high offices, although she was with us only one year. Janice Shaffer was the editor of the "Lighthouse," and did a grand job of it, too. Another outstanding student was Beverly Lackey, who was President of the Beta Club in her Senior year.

So another class is graduated from Oceana High School, well-prepared to face whatever lies ahead. We've had fun, there's no doubt about it, and if you should ask us if we'd like to do it all over again, I believe the unanimous cry would be "Yes!"

Doris Rice.

AT GRADUATION, 1945

Dear friends, it's time for us to part, as others have before,
We stand upon the threshold of our life's wide open door,
There's a world for us to conquer, there's a goal for us to win,
And we'll do it, just you wait and see, and here's how we'll begin:
We'll decide which is the right road, and which one is the wrong,
And we'll take the straight and narrow, though it may seem very long.
Our steps will never falter, though the going may be rough,
When we've set ourselves a standard, why that's reason quite enough.
No matter where you look, you can see just how youth strives
To lay a firm foundation, as a base for full, rich lives.
We have such a foundation, and we're ready, come what may,
It is for this that men have planned, since freedom's dawning day.
So now, dear friends, I bid you safe journey and fair weather,
It's been such fun, the pleasures which we have shared together,
May you find the best of what you seek, the world's great golden store,
And I'll meet you at the crossroads when at last the journey's o'er.

Doris Mae Rice.

LOOKING AHEAD TEN YEARS

This is station J-E-R-K

"GARAVAGLIA'S Garlic Gum Drops" for a sweeter breath, presents — that smooth, soft, silvertoned voice of our leading common-tater, EILEEN HURLEY, with the latest news.

—We regret to inform the nation that the great research chemist, GLENN YATES, JR., was injured today in his chemical laboratory by a very slight explosion of T. N. T., but we know that the world renowned surgeon, Dr. TOM BROOKS, JR., will pull him through—

DIRECT FROM BROADWAY — "How Green Was the Corn" is running in its seventh year, starring LEWIS RAINEY and ANN KITCHIN, with supporting roles by DALE BROWDER and ETTA MAE LA BARRER. Three cheers for its producer, BOB IMLER and director, BENNETT WINSTON.

Flash! from New York City — the news has come through that JANE ROBINSON has just been voted "The Figure" by the Plastic-Stretch Foundations Company which is headed by that connoisseur of fine figures, LEE GREGORY, who at the present time is contemplating marriage to the world famous lecturer JACKIE STONE.

What's this we have! The championship wrestling match at Madison Square Garden with the two undefeated contestants, that "MARVEL" BREITLING and the holder of five state championships, RUTH GRAY. May the best girl win!

FLASH! from Reno — PEGGY SWINDELL, toast of millions is divorcing her fifth husband, the multi-millionaire NORRIS MERKLE to marry WOODROW FLORA, Frisco playboy.

Does your husband look at other women? Does your hair look like a dish mop slightly used? Not if you use "RAETZ'S Rinse" for the hair white beautiful.

Sad news — MURIEL "Gravel" WHITEHURST caught her luxurious locks in a revolving door. At last it was discovered that she had a face — she wasn't really walking backwards.

The famous D. A. WALTER MAMBY has as his chief assistant MISS IRENE WRIGHT — Together they will try to solve that famous question — who shalt lizzy?

Now to Memphis, Tennessee, for that good and old mountain music rendered by the Queen of Cern silk our own DORIS RICE accompanied by LUCY (goin' back to wagon folks) DEAM on her geetar.

Washington — the first woman to run for President on the Republican ticket is MARY WEEKS. Her running mate will be Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

FLASH FROM OCEANA — RALPH MOONEY, now principal of Oceana High School is reported as having quite a love affair with commercial teacher MARJORIE LITCHFIELD.

"DIMPLES" FIMPLE simply blushed when offered a contract by the BOWDEN Nylone Company, to model OLDEKER'S Streamlined Styles In Silk.

WHAT'S THIS! — There has been a fire at JOHN BROWN'S Home for Wayward Wolves. The damage was light, but JAMES ALLEN, one of the inmates, was slightly injured, and is recovering in BESSIE KONTOPANOS' "Sunny-Side Sanitarium" under the came of the expert nurse, JANE SIMMONS.

FROM BOSTON COMES NEWS THAT — Miss ALTA TOWE is to be the guest speaker tonight at a banquet given by JENIEL BROTHERS in honor of TOM SAWYER, who has just returned from his voyage to Pocomoco with his consultant Dr. DEWEY RODGERSON, psychiatrist.

The grand opening of RUSH'S is all the talk this evening, one of the biggest night clubs of its kind, backed by ELLIS MILLS, with shows directed by L .V. KARNS and a chorus consisting of IONA WHITE, EVELYN BELL, HELEN GRESHAM, MARJORIE FARRAR and the little blonde on the end with the pink garter, GEORGIANNA DYER. Between the MALBON'S South Sea Act and Doubling DUNN in her daredevil dance, "Legs" LACKEY, the cigaret girl serves us. Last but not least, is the hit of the show, "ROSELENA" IVES with her ostrich feathers. On leaving, we salvage our hats from hat-check girl DOT BOWLES.

News from Miami — "Kutie" KYLE, lately nominated "Miss Miami Beach," has strong competition from "Shape" SHAFFER, "Miss London Bridge," for the title of "Miss America." May the best shape win!

FLASH FROM HOLLYWOOD — is it true that JIMMIE "Van" PAXTON, the hero of millions of bobby soxers, is going to tie the knot with that debutante of cafe society BETSY WITHERS? Who knows, dear listeners!

And so we bring to a close our news events of the day — and remember dear listeners for a breath that lingers — continue to use our products — G. G. Gum Drops.

EILEEN HURLEY, GLORIA GARAVAGLIA AND MURIEL WHITEHURST.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1945

We, who have been selected as the lowest intellect of morons and recommended by the Moron Institution of Ignoranceville, having been authorized by the Senior Class of Oceana High School, in the County of Princess Anne, in the State of Virginia, in the United States of North America, in the Western Hemisphere, do draw up their last will and testament to the following persons.

SECTION I

To The Faculty:

To Mr. Owens and the faculty we leave our appreciation for their guidance throughout our four struggling years and hope they won't have as much trouble with the classes to come.

To Clarance:

We leave our trash, dirt, and what else he might find thrown here and there. He has our thanks for his tiresome job and also our sympathies.

To Mrs. Foskett:

We leave the appetites of the classes to come and the hope they will be satisfied in the new lunch room.

SECTION II

To The Class of 1946:

We leave the incoming Seniors our dignified positions as upper classmen. We had every intention of willing them our shoes for them to step in, but since we have used all our coupons, we leave them only our foot prints.

To the individual members of the Class of '46 we leave the following possessions, which they can take or leave, but please don't throw away.

Woodrow Flora leaves his vivacious personality to Al Craft.

Dale Browder leaves his manly physique to Clay Perry.

Helen Gresham, Evelyn Bell and Tom Sawyer leave their brilliant minds to anyone in the Junior Class who needs them.

Frances Bowden, Shirley Oldeker, Jeniel Brothers leave their flirting ability to shy, retiring Cecelia Cole.

Muriel Whitehurst leaves her freckles to Ann Osborne.

Ellis Mills says he needs everything he's got.

Jimmie Paxton leaves his dimples to all the Junior boys so that they, too, can charm Mrs. Jeter.

Betsy Kyle, Janice Shaffer and Marvel Breitling leave the basketball ability to anyone who needs it.

Beverly Lackey leaves her office as president of the Beta Club to Isabel White.

Glenn Yates and Lee Gregory leave their basketball ability to Edwin Hathaway and George Caffery.

Peggy Swindell, Jane Simmons and Bessie Kontopanos leave their sweetness to Martha Carr and Katherine Wood.

Marjorie Litchfield and Etta Mae La Barrer leave their ability to type to Thelma Tripp.

Dewey Rodgerson leaves his gravel voice to Mr. Rewis.

Gloria Garavaglia and Georgianna Dyer leave their shortness to Patsy Flowers.

To All The Junior Girls We Leave:

Lucy Deam and Mary Meeks eyes.

Shirley Dunn's legs.

Molly Malbon's smile.

Dot Bowles' acting ability.

Doris Rice's disposition.

Betsy Withers' long, flowing locks.

Jackie Stone's leadership.

Eileen Fimple's shyness.

Jane Robinson's popularity.

James Allen leaves his typing ability to Billy Myers, so he can type his own jokes.

Maggie Farrar and Ruth Gray leave some of their excess weight to Alice Sale.

Irene Wright leaves her timidity to Virginia Carpenter.

To The Junior Boys:

Bob Imler's rosy complexion.

Ralph Mooney's good manners.

John Brown's "way with the girls."

M. J. Rush's way with Mrs. Jeter.

Lewis Rainey leaves his long, black locks to Joe Crosswhite.

Eileen Hurley leaves her wit to Kathleen Mallory.

Rose Ives leaves her art ability to Joe Cashman.

Ann Kitchin leaves Al Craft to the Junior girls.

Iona White and Mary Malbon leave their ability to get along with people to those many people who need it.

Alta Towe leaves her roaring voice to Leonard Byrd.

Jacque Raetz leaves her place in the Hall of Fame to Gladys Pumphrey.

Norris Merkle, Walter Mamby, L. V. Karns, Tom Brooks and Bennett Winston leave.

Anne Kitchin and Jacque Raetz.
